Mr. D'Adamo opened the meeting with a prayer.

Introductions of those present took place.

Past Events:

The HSA winter social held at Casa Mia's restaurant was a success.

Candace Dold gave a recap on the One Love Foundation presentation.

Trish Wall spoke about the success of the Beauty and the Beast event at Mercy High School. Mary Poppins will be performed at Mercy High School on March 25, 2017. Tickets will be sold to all school families.

Jenelle Antkowiak reported that the Stocking Stuffer Event brought in a profit on $2451.00. The possibility of renaming the event was discussed.

Candace Dold reported that the HSA-sponsored faculty and staff luncheon was a success.

Kristy Arata spoke about the success of the Candy Cane Shop. Kristy reported on the number of gifts remaining and also reported that she has begun purchasing for next year's shop.

Boxtops envelopes were distributed to each family. Graul's receipts are also being collected by the track to treasure committee.

Upcoming Events:

Samantha Hall discussed budget priorities for next school year. Enrollment trends were discussed. It was noted that tuition rates have remained the same for three consecutive years. More specifics will be discussed at the end of January at a school-sponsored meeting.

Mr. D'Adamo discussed plans for an intent to reenroll form to be distributed to families. More information will be sent home regarding this idea.

The idea of HSA hosting an alumni bingo or other event was discussed and will be revisited at the next HSA meeting.

The Snowball dance is scheduled to be held February 3, 2017. Information will be distributed to families next week regarding menu and price.

Beat the Blahs theme will be Wild Wild West. Ticket prices were discussed and will be determined at a later date. Bills Seafood will cater the event. As in past years, there will be a silent and live auction.

Mr. D'Adamo discussed the Superbowl Raffle Ticket event. Tickets were distributed to all school families and are being sold after weekend masses.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00.
